INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Attached please find Form PTO-1449 together with the references as cited in the enclosed Japanese office actions issued for Japanese Application Numbers JP 2000-185682 and JP 2000-185683 (for which English summary translations are enclosed). Both of these applications follow from JP 8-292722 on which the priority of this present US Patent Application is based. No translations are available at this time, however, English abstracts are provided for the cited references.

✓ - JP 3-95029 is cited in the office action for JP 2000-185682 by the Japanese Patent Examiner as relating to the use of a step in a paper guide to allow the paper to fall naturally during feeding. An English translation of the abstract for this Japanese patent application is provided, however, a complete translation is not available to applicant at this time.

✓ - JP 6-164834 is cited in the office action for JP 2000-185683 by the Japanese Patent Examiner as relating to the arrangement of rollers which are not situated in only one line.

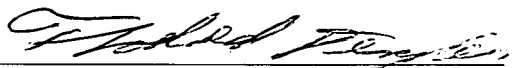

An English translation of the abstract for this Japanese patent application is provided, however, a complete translation is not available to applicant at this time.

- JP 7-250222 is cited in the office action for JP 2000-185683 by the Japanese Patent Examiner as relating to the number of rollers used in a device, such as three rollers. An English translation of the abstract for this Japanese patent application is provided, however, a complete translation is not available to applicant at this time.

It is applicants position that no fee or statement is due at this time in relation to the submission of this Information Disclosure Statement, because no office action has been received by applicant since the filing of the Request for Continued Examination of this application.

Favorable action is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted for Applicant,
